

Prof Richard Mackay, AM

Curriculum Vitae

Richard Mackay is the founder and 'Director of Possibilities' at Mackay Strategic. Richard has worked in cultural heritage management for more than 30 years. He was a founding Partner of GML Heritage Pty Ltd, one of Australia's leading heritage consulting practices.

Richard was an ICOMOS cultural advisor at recent Sessions of the UNESCO World Heritage Committee, and is a member of the National Executive Committee of Australia ICOMOS. He is the immediate past Chair of the Australian World Heritage Advisory Committee and the Greater Blue Mountains World Heritage Area Advisory Committee. He was responsible for the 'Heritage' theme of the 2016 Commonwealth State of the Environment report and was a member of the Australian State of the Environment 2011 Committee. Richard has been a member of Australia ICOMOS Burra Charter Working Party, a Non-executive Director of the National Trust in NSW, a member of the Heritage Council of NSW and was inaugural Chair of the NSW State Heritage Register Committee.

Richard has extensive skills in facilitation and strategic direction of heritage projects and place management throughout Australia and in Asia. He has worked successfully for government and non-government agencies and corporations, devising innovative but practical solutions to complex cultural heritage challenges at places ranging from Angkor, Cambodia to Sydney's Luna Park. He has pioneered public archaeology and community participation programs, fostered cultural tourism and sustainable livelihoods, advised senior levels of government, provided expert testimony in multiple jurisdictions and published widely on archaeology, conservation and heritage management.

Richard was the inaugural winner of the Australian Heritage Council 'Sharon Sullivan Award' for his contribution to Australia's national heritage. In 2003 he was made a Member in the General Division of the Order of Australia for services to archaeology and cultural heritage.
